Please allow Cicirelli to appoint her own directors

Sandy Cicirelli hasn't even been sworn into office and people are harshly judging her behavior.

I am not that old that I don't remember many previous administrators that were let go by incoming mayors. It happens in all levels of government.

Who is to say that Richard LeBlanc might not have removed certain people that the residents liked, maybe even Ms. Brist, too.

Please recall people, disagree but don't be so disagreeable.

Caller predicts return of Cox, Griffin and Kozorosky-Wiacek

Is it true that Trav Griffin or David Cox will be the new deputy mayor?

Is Sylvia Kozorosky-Wiacek returning to the senior center with Senior Resources Director Lori Brist and others being shown the door when Ms. Cicirelli takes over? [Brist made way for Peggy Ellenwood. Griffin and Kozorosky-Wiacek have retired. Cox remains at large — Ed.]

If so, anyone want to buy a house in Westland? The taxes are gonna get me

Was complaint about kids at bar and grill a drunken rant?

Did the caller who complained about children eating a family dinner at the Knockout Bar and Grill have too much to drink?

Not only is the Knockout a locally-owned restaurant, but it has a good family-dining menu. Great food for everybody, young and old.

Parents should be praised for treating their kids to a good meal.

Barth wins $50,000 Golden Apple award

Barth Elementary School recently became the second Romulus school to win the $50,000 State of Michigan Golden Apple Award.

Barth thus joins 2000 winner Merriman Elementary in this elite classification.

Only 38 schools in southeastern Michigan earn this designation each year.

Principal Diane Golka commented, "The Golden Apple Award was the result of a total team effort. We all work together and everyone is dedicated to high academic goals."

This is the second statewide award for Barth this year as the school also was one of three recognized for the Middle Cities Education Muth Award in September.

The Golden Apple Award was in recognition for improvement in MEAP scores from 1999 to 2001.

The Barth MEAP scores improved by a total of 61.3 points in the four core subjects tested each year—math, reading, science and writing.

Landowners contest Pinnacle condemnation

Romulus officials are eagerly awaiting a decision from Wayne County Circuit Judge Michael Sapala as to the merits of the Pinnacle Aeropark project.

Landowners who represent about 60 to the 1,200 acre site in Romulus and Huron Township are contesting the county's condemnation procedures in court.

Those landowners have hired Alan Ackerman, an attorney expert in the condemnation area, who claims the county hasn't shown a public benefit from their condemnation proceedings because no specific user has been identified.

The county's attorney, Mark Zausmer has argued that the economic benefits which include 24,000 jobs amounting to $534 million in wages each year, is undisputable evidence of a public benefit.

Pinnacle is being planned by the County as a mixed-use project including industrial, office, research, hotels and golf courses. The 1,200 acres border the southside of Detroit Metropolitan Airport.

The County still needs to acquire 156 acres before they can continue with the project. 110 of those acres the county is currently negotiating for, while the remainder are involved in condemnation proceedings.

The project has been designated a SmartZone by the Michigan Economic Development Corporation. That essentially means Romulus can use tax-increment financing to buy property, improve infrastructure, and for marketing.

The county is negotiating with Romulus and Huron Township on zoning and tax financing issues. The county is also talking with the MEDC about road financing and utility infrastructure improvements.

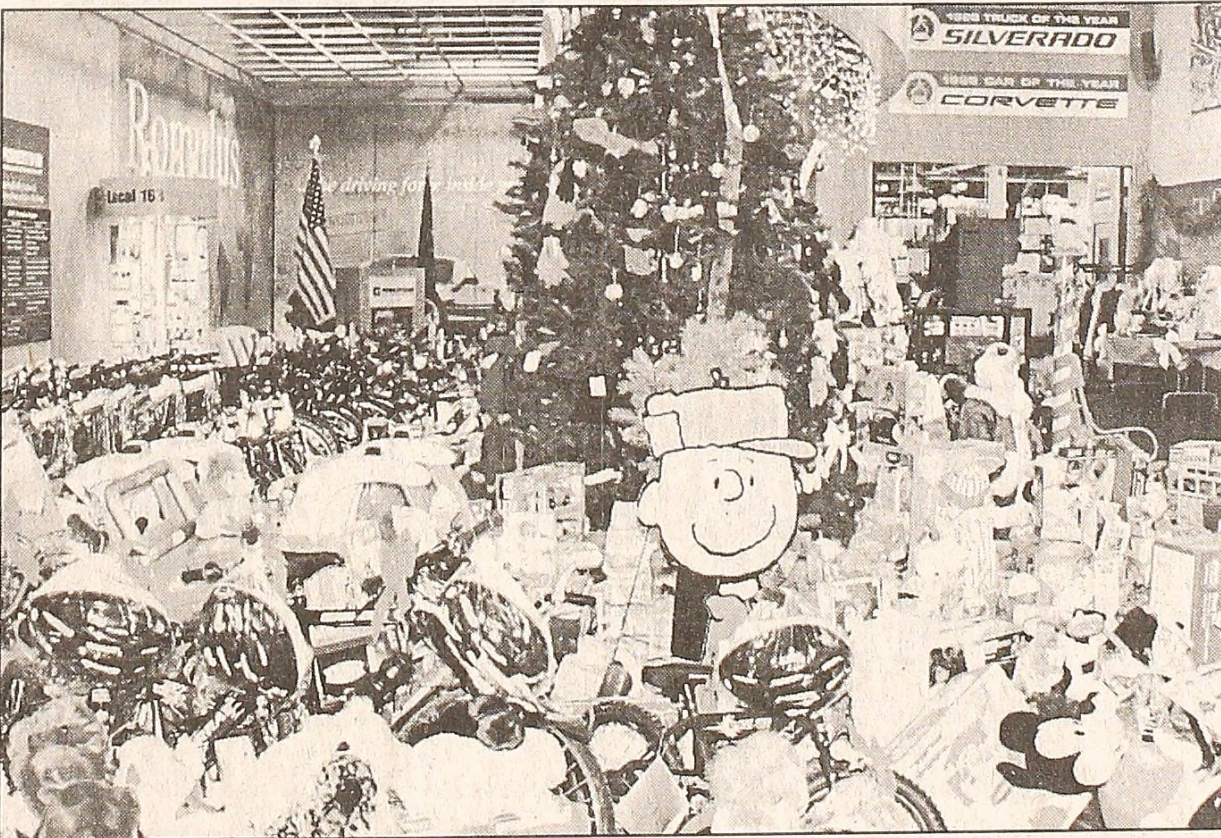

GM Powertrain donates 280 bikes to kids

Employees of GM Powertrain Romulus Engine plant donated more than $34,000 in cash and toys to the U.S. Marine Corps Toys for Tots campaign.

280 bikes of all sizes were purchased with funds raised from this year's program, "bikes for kids." GM also purchased safety helmets to go with each bicycle to help kids develop good safety habits.

"I am extremely proud of all our employees," said Steve Somers, Romulus Engine Plant Manager. "Donating enough money to purchase 280 bikes is quite an accomplishment."

About 150 people gathered to watch the presentation ceremony on Dec. 18. The guest of honor included 12 local children who will benefit from the generosity of the employees.

GM Powertrain purchased enough bikes to fill a warehouse. The bikes were donated to Toys for Tots.

Alan R. Lambert

New mayor announces appointments

By STEFANIE CARANO
MCN Special Writer

Newly appointed Mayor Alan Lambert walked into his busy office trailed by several people, competing for his attention. For the past few weeks he has been putting together his staff while attempting to put forward his plans for the city and has been very busy.

He has hired and promoted several people, including a new Community Development Director, Tim Keyes. Before coming to Romulus, Keyes spent eight years with the city of Taylor as a Special Project Manager and was in charge of all the city's beautification projects. He received a Bachelor of Science from Central Michigan University.

Barbara Fitzgerald is the new Personnel Director, after working with the city of Romulus for 16 years under Marilyn Radford as the Assistant Personnel Director. She received an Associate's Degree in Business Administration from Schoolcraft College and has lived in Romulus 30 years.

Lynn Conway is the new Purchasing Coordinator for the Finance Department after working for eight years as the Coordinating Agent. She was brought out of retirement to serve Romulus again and has a Bachelor of Fine Arts from Wayne State University. She has been a Romulus resident 26 years.

Randy Mc Mahan was promoted from his previous position as Assistant Building Director to Building Director and will be handling subdivision developments in Romulus.

Tom Ellis, who has lived in Romulus all his life, has worked with Lambert the last fifteen years in the police department. He is now assisting Lambert during his transition.

Not only has Lambert appointed these new people to help make Romulus a better place, he also has plans for revitalization of the city. He will be getting together with the Downtown Development Authority to help make Romulus "a destination, not just a location." He has also been attempting to get a grocery store in Romulus.

"Revitalization is very important," says Lambert. "I think we've got to clean-up our whole image and I think we can do it," he adds. He mentioned he'd like to see new welcome signs.

Even though he is so busy he feels good that the people of Romulus put their trust in him. "I am extremely busy, but that's good everything's going well," he said.

Wayne Memorial is seeking 'Distinguished Alumni'

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

Principal Chastain: 'Our way of honoring outstanding graduate'

Each and every school district produces outstanding alumni. But most of the graduates go through life without any recognition.

At Wayne Memorial High School, in the Wayne-Westland School District, there is an annual celebration of the past by recognizing one of the high school's notable graduates who exemplifies what education does and is all about.

School officials announce the winner at the annual commencement program, and the candidate selected by a panel also is awarded a medal of recognition.

"We have had many outstanding people graduate from Wayne Memorial. Many have contributed significantly to the betterment of society on a local, state, national or international level," said Donald E. Chastain, who is a Wayne Memorial alumnus and presently the high school's principal.

"The Distinguished Alumni Award is our way of honoring an outstanding graduate on an annual basis," said Chastain.

The prestigious award presentation also has become a part of the annual commencement ceremony at Wayne Memorial High School. Each winner is awarded a gold medal inscribed with the official school seal.

"This is an opportunity for our most recent alumni, those in-involved in the commencement, to hear first hand from a former alumnus who has made his or her mark on society," stressed Chastain.

One of the most laborious tasks, of course, is picking the eventual honoree from a field that usually includes many outstanding candidates. The tedious process by the selection panel includes perusing the qualifications and the achievements of the prospective candi-

For that reason, Wayne Memorial is inviting the community to help in its search to find the recipient of the 2002 "Distinguished Alumni Award" so that the panel may have the names and addresses of the candidates.

Local and area residents who wish to nominate a Wayne Memorial graduate are asked to fill out a nominating form and return the form to Wayne Memorial High School.

The recipient will be honored at commencement ceremonies scheduled for June 8, 2002.

Also, those who wish to nominate deserving graduates may contact Mary Huber, secretary, Wayne Memorial High School.

Wayne Memorial is located at 3001 Fourth Street, in Wayne. The zip code is 48184.

For further information please contact Huber at 734-595-2206.

Resident donates $3000 to shelter

It is the season of giving.

And recently a Wayne resident donated $3,000 worth of equipment to the Wayne Animal Shelter.

For his generous gift, Robert Boyles, was recognized by mayor and city council.

Boyles donated the equipment in remembrance of his wife, Grace, who loved animals.

In a note of appreciation to Boyles, Police Chief Mike Sumeracki and Wayne's Animal Control Officer, James Smith, recognized Boyles for his contribution.

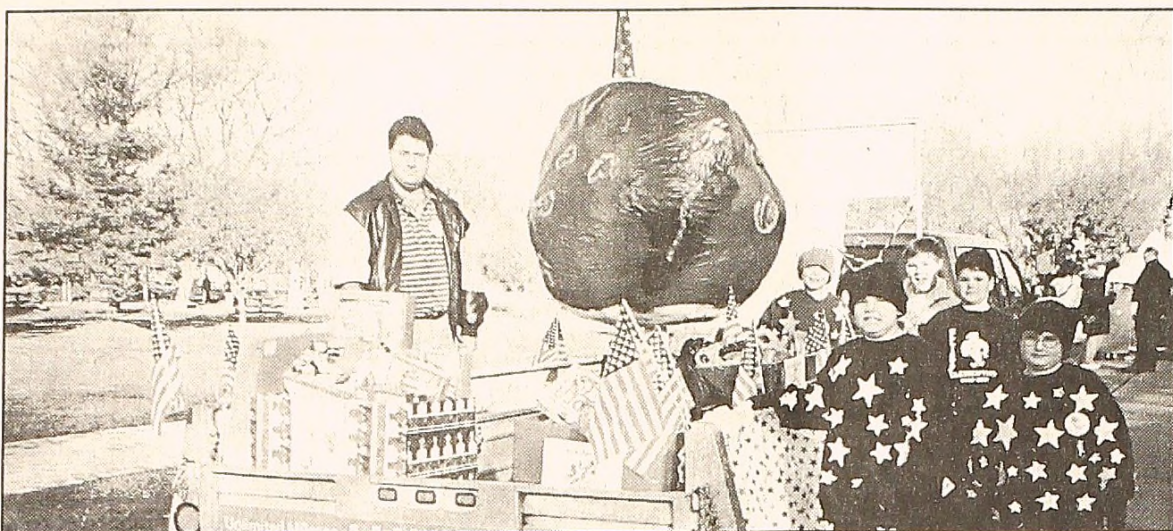

Sumeracki added that a plaque would be hung at the Animal Shelter marking the donation made in memory of Grace Boyles.

The $3,000 was used to purchase equipment such as cat cages, floor grates and live-traps.

Step team

Students at Wayne Memorial High School have dozens of clubs and organizations to get involved in. But some students decided to add to the ever-increasing list.

What began as an informal demonstration during the Homecoming Pep Assembly has now blossomed into a team program called the Step Team.

'The lost brigade'

Parenting is workshop theme

"Parenting" is the theme of a workshop sponsored by the Family Resource Center of the Wayne-Westland Community Schools.

Among the several topics offered to participants are "Budgeting-101", "How to Talk So Kids Will Listen", "Alternative Consequences That Work", "Your Kids and A.D.D./A.D.H.D.", "STEP for Parents of Teens" and a "Healthy Downriver Family Expo".

The eight-week workshops have the following starting dates and times: Friday, Jan. 18, from 9:30 a.m. until 11:30 a.m. or, for those who work and can't attend the a.m. sessions, there are classes that will begin at 7 p.m. until 9 p.m. starting Thurs., Jan. 17.

Based on the popular H. Stephan Glenn program entitled "Developing Capable Young People", the eight-week program answers the question, "How to get children to cooperate and be respectful without raising your voice."

Workshop officials stress that registration is necessary.

Please contact the Family Resource Center by dialing 734-595-2279 for further information.

Concept vehicles on display in Wayne

Local and area residents will have an opportunity to get a glimpse of several concept vehicles which will be put on display next month at the William D. Ford Technical Center in Westland.

The William D. Ford Center is located on Marquette Avenue in the City of Westland.

The display is the work of the students of Lawrence Technological University in Southfield. The future engineers have come up with some unique and fascinating designs for the cars of the future.

The concept vehicles will be on display from 9 a.m. until 10:15 a.m., and from 11 a.m. until 12:30 p.m. in the parking lot area near the Auto Tech classrooms.

For more information, contact Rick Hamrick at 734-595-2106.

CHARTER TOWNSHIP OF VAN BUREN
REGULAR BOARD MEETING MINUTES
DECEMBER 18, 2001

Supervisor King called the meeting to order at 7:30 p.m. in the Board Room. Present: King, Payne, Budd, Hart, Herman, Jahr and Rochowiak. Absent and excused: None. Others in attendance: Recreation and Facilities Director Ross, Public Safety Director Elg, Planning and Economic Development Director Kelley, Park Manager Camis Water and Sewer Director Duha, Executive Assistant Ireland, Secretary Cline and an audience of twenty eight (28).

APPROVAL OF AGENDA: Hart moved, Budd seconded to approve the agenda as presented with one change: move "Correspondence" ahead of the "Public Hearing". Carried.

CORRESPONDENCE: Waste Management representatives presented a park bench to the Community Services Department and gave a brief update on Waste Management services and the good working relationship between the company and the Township.

A Press Release from State Representative Bruce Patterson stating a third judgeship had been created for the 35th District Court and there was no mention of moving Van Buren Township from the 34th District Court in this legislation.

A letter from the Michigan Recreation & Park Association (MRPA) notifying Van Buren Parks and Recreation Department of approval from their Mini-Grant Committee to receive a $5000 "Get Michigan Youth Moving" program grant.

PUBLIC HEARING: Jahr moved., Herman seconded to open the public hearing to consider tile special use request from Creative Land Design, Inc. to enter into a PRD (Planned Residential Development) agreement with Van Buren Township to construct a 536 unit residential development in portions of Sections 23 and 26. Carried.

Supervisor King opened the public hearing and went to Director Kelley for an introduction and background information. Director Kelley stated the Township is in receipt of a special use request from Creative Land Design, Inc. to enter into a PRD (Planned Residential Development) agreement with the Township to construct 536 single-family homes. The need for special approval is outlined in the Township Zoning Ordinance. The Planning Commission has recommended the Board approve the request based on the Commission's facts and findings that the plans, specifications, and various agreements comply with the Township regulations as prescribed by the PRD section of the Zoning ordinance, Considerations for a PRD agreement include determination of eligibility, approval of preliminary plans, and approval of final plans and modifications. Should the Board of Trustees approve the special use request the item will be returned to the Planning Commission for final site plan approval.

Director Kelley further stated the site is approximately 313 acres and is bounded by East Huron River Drive, Martinsville and Savage Roads. The project includes 416 single-family detached units and 120 attached condo units. Some of the items included in this plan are as follows:

- The paving of Martinsville Road between East Huron River Drive and Savage Road.
- Sidewalks to be constructed along Martinsville, Savage and East Huron River Drive frontages.
- Approximately, 167.98 or 53.6% of the total site area will be maintained as common area that include nature trails and existing wooded areas.
- 125 or 30% of the units will have side entry garages. These locations have been specifically numbered on the proposed plan in the PRD agreement.
- 176 or 42% of the detached units have brick on all four sides up to the "belt" (the ceiling of the first floor) and the locations of these units have been determined on the proposed plan.
- The attached units will have brick on all four exterior walls up to the "belt". There- is no requirement for brick exteriors on attached units in the Zoning Ordinance.
- The 31 acres fronting on East Huron River Drive, north of the railroad tracks and abutting Martinsville Road will be conveyed to the Township with future uses of this land restricted to a park and/or residential development.
- All buildings will be set back 200' from Martinsville and Savage Roads.

Director Kelley continued by stating it is appropriate that a development the size and scope of the proposed Country Walk site condominium provide amenities and special design features to enhance the Township. The PRD process allows the Township to develop and negotiate for items that would provide community benefits not typically allowed by the Zoning Ordinance. The proposed PRD agreement contains descriptions and requirements that exceed typical subdivisions in Van Buren Township. Setting aside land for community use, paving a mile of road, constructing over two miles of public sidewalk, requiring specific architectural detail and material, and setting aside 53% of the total land area as open space make good planning and managed growth sense. The appropriate planning, engineering, legal and Township staff have reviewed all plans, specifications, and documents and recommend that the Board of Trustees approve the PRD agreement.

Nicole Jaeger, Planning Coordinator with Creative Land Design, Inc. reiterated Director Kelley's remarks about the proposed PRD. She stated the overall density of the proposed project is 1.7 units per acre and approximately 86% of the units about open space. Also, there will be 100' setbacks from the existing homes on Lenmoore and 150' setbacks from the railroad tracks. The average home size will be 1750 .square feet and the home prices will range from $ 150,000 to $250, 000.

Norman Hyman, attorney for Creative Land Design, Inc. stated the proposed PRD agreement has been a 3-1/2 year negotiation process with many changes being during this time period. The PRD agreement incorporates the entire site plan package and all related documentation. The PRD agreement further provides prior to each phase of the development and the granting of certificates of occupancy, the master deed, by-laws and restrictions will be submitted to the Township for final review and approval.

Supervisor King read into record Section 5 of the proposed agreement due to the importance of this component regarding the conveyance of land as negotiated between the two parties. "The Developer will transfer to the Township that portion of the Land identified on Exhibit A as Parcel I, consisting of 31.51 acres, formerly known as the proposed Stonegate Site Condominium. In compensation for Developer's agreement to make such transfer, the Township hereby (1) credits Developer in the amount of $390,125, to be applied against the first $390,125 of building permit fees applicable to the project, the Township agreeing that the Township building pen-nits fees applicable on the date of this Agreement, shall not be increased for the Project only within six at least (6) years from the date of this Agreement; and (2) relieves Developer of any requirement of tree replacement or provision beyond the number of trees shown on the approved Landscape Plan for the Project dated March 28, 2001 except that, should the number of regulated trees, as determined by the Country Walk Tree Replacement Calculations prepared by McKenna Associates, Inc., dated July 18, 2001; proposed to be removed during the development of the Project exceed 1,347, then the Developer shall, at Developer's option, either add to the Landscape Plan a number of trees equal to the number of additional regulated trees removed, or pay to the Township an amount equal to the number of additional trees removed multiplied by $365. The total acreage shall be included in the proposed Country Walk Site Condominium site plan and PRD applications for the purpose of deriving all calculations." Supervisor King continued with an overview of the remainder of the PRD agreement, much of which had been previously mentioned.

Board members had the following comments and questions- Why a PRD agreement? The PRD is a common too] used that allows the Township to get special amenities and/or features that the Zoning Ordinance does not address, in return for the special amenities and/or features the Township is able to offer incentives to a residential developer such as increased density. In this case, the developer has increased the density less than 10%. The PRD allows for 40% attached condominiums and there is a market demand for attached condominiums in Van Buren Township. The PRD also provides for the following: large open spaces; better potential for linkages between neighboring land, preservation of natural corridors and/or the creation of bike paths and greenways (the Township has a grant for greenways work in this location); less [and disturbed during construction; higher value to future home owners; reduced demand for new public park land; the preservation of trees and vegetation to provide erosion control, air quality improvement and storm water filtering; and flexibility to design lots. Also, the State Legislature has recently discussed legislation to require communities to develop ordinances such as Van Buren Township already has with the PRD ordinance.

In reference to the 31.51 acres the credit for perits is only on building permits not on electrical, mechanical or plumbing permits. The tree preservation ordinance has been met and the numbers referenced are in excess of ordinance requirements. In addition, the conveyance of the land allows for the preservation the Riggs house and barn since it is on this parcel of land and the creation of a park.

A resident was concerned about the responsibilities of the homeowners association. There will be a total of five separate associations one for each phase and one master association made up of homeowners from each of the other associations to oversee the entire development. There will only be one builder for the project, which is Crosswinds. The developer will create an account for maintenance to handle costs of the association maintenance immediately with the association assessing for further monies from the homeowners as needed. There is a twenty-five year waiting period before any of the open spares could be sold or developed. Also, before any open spaces could be sold all five associations including the master association would have to agree and would then need Township approval. The Township has requested the time period be changed to fifty years and the developer has agreed. It is also stated in the master deed that all common areas are available for all phases to use (one association cannot bar another association from using its open space).

A resident voiced concerns about the land transfer and the monetary value given to the 3 1.51 acres. The inquired whether this development meets the open space requirements without including the 31.51 acres and the wetland areas. Director Kelley responded the project does meet the requirements of open space with the elimination of wetlands and the land to be conveyed to the township. The resident agrees the park and open space are good for the community but disagrees with credits given to the developer and felt this money if collected could be better used for a new fire station on South end of township or for additional inspection staff. Supervisor King agreed a new fire station would be good for the community; however, this agreement would give the Township a park in the southern part of the township, which is also a goal of the Township. Finally she stated this is a good plan and has value for the Township.

Another resident inquired about the size of lots in the southern part of the township and how can this development have 61' lots. Director Kelley stated you need to look at the density of the land and this is what the PRD does Creates clusters of dwelling and allows for more open spaces.

Mr. Hyman responded again to the concerns and questions. He reiterated what Director Kelley and Supervisor King had previously stated. He finished by stating this development will create value to the land that will increase revenue to the township in taxes.

News from the City of Inkster

Inkster, Arabs join forces for unity

In the wake of the Sept. 11, 2001, terrorists' attacks on America, Americans are trying to pick up the pieces to their lives and continue on with their lives.

And they are also looking for some answers to why the nation would be attacked.

It is difficult for most of us to realize that a small cadre of religious fanatics can destroy the lives of so many, but it has happened.

Two local and area groups have joined their forces to seek solutions to violence and bring understanding among people and the races from the chaos triggered by the devastation upon the World Trade Center and the Pentagon.

The Inkster Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. and the Arab Community Center and Social Services (ACCESS) recently hosted a seminar called: "Season of Unity" Forging Bonds of Friendship between African American and Arab Women in western Wayne County.

Seeking cooperation and understanding among peoples of various ethnic backgrounds and religions, the Inkster Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. met with Arab women in western Wayne County to discuss ways to reach their goals. Members said that the dialogue was "very constructive" and the information will be forwarded to other groups. They vowed to meet again in the near future to continue the dialogue.

The workshop was held at ACCESS' headquarters in Dearborn.

The program featured a frank roundtable discussion between Arab and African American women about post-American-September 11 life in western Wayne County.

Metro Detroit is home to the world's third-largest Middle Eastern population.

Genarda Wright, Delta's Inkster Chapter President, explained that while the group's members had originally planned a town hall meeting on the oppression of women in Afghanistan for autumn, they changed the focus of the event after the Sept. 11 attacks on America.

The event featured presentations about the importance of ethnic and religious tolerance.

Topics of discussions included the law enforcement practice of racial profiling and controversial federal anti-terrorism legislation.

Women on both sides of the cultural divide addressed common stereotypes about Muslim, Arab and African American people.

Also, the participants enjoyed a dinner that featured Middle Eastern and traditional African American foods.

The chapter's International Awareness Committee planned the event. The committee is chaired by R. Lorraine Hurst and co-chaired by Adams Nelson.

Applicants must enter an accredited college or university or a certified school of art, music or drama. They may also consider enrolling in an accredited junior college, certified vocational, or technical school in the fall of 2002.

Prospective candidates also must provide the scholarship committee with the following:

- * A letter of recommendation from each of the following: A teacher; Counselor; Minister, employer or community person.

Summerfest fund hiked to $25,000

At the request of the Inkster Summerfest Committee's chairperson Ruth E. Williams, mayor and city council last week increased the city's annual contribution to the city-wide festival by $5,000.

The city will provide funding of up to $20,000 to organize and stage the summer activities.

Williams told the council that much of the committee's funding comes from donations and volunteers. She said that the committee plans to invite a vendor to stage a carnival and the additional funding is needed to finance the project.

Along with the financial assistance, the city also provides manpower from the Department of Public Services to set up tables and chairs and cut grass and street cleaning. Also provide liability insurance.

TO THE TAXPAYERS AND ELECTORS OF THE CITY OF WAYNE, MICHIGAN

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that the City of Wayne intends to approve and execute An Amended and Restated Contract of Lease with the City of Wayne Building Authority pursuant to Act No. 31, Public Acts of Michigan, 1948 (First Extra Session), as amended. Such Amended and Restated Contract will provide, among other things, that said Building Authority will (a) complete the acquisition, construction, furnishing and equipping of a new DPW Facility, together with site, utility and parking improvements and all appurtenances and attachments thereto, which will also initially serve as an interim Fire Station and WILL ISSUE ITS BONDS TO FINANCE THE ADDITIONAL ESTIMATED COST OF ACQUIRING AND CONSTRUCTING THE SAME FOR SAID CITY IN THE PRINCIPAL AMOUNT OF NOT TO EXCEED $735,000 and (b) will also acquire, construct, furnish and equip a new Fire Station Facility, together with site acquisition, site, utility, and parking improvements and all appurtenance and attachments thereto, together with the demolition of the existing fire station, and WILL ISSUE ITS BONDS TO FINANCE THE ESTIMATED COST OF ACQUIRING AND CONSTRUCTING THE SAME FOR SAID CITY IN THE PRINCIPAL AMOUNT OF NOT TO EXCEED $5,200,000. PROVIDED, HOWEVER, THAT THE MAXIMUM AMOUNT OF BONDS TO BE ISSUED FOR THE ABOVE PURPOSES PURSUANT TO THE AMENDED AND RESTATED CONTRACT SHALL NOT BE GREATER THAN $5,935,000. Said bonds will mature serially in not to exceed 25 annual installments, and will bear interest not exceeding 6% per annum on the outstanding principal balance or such higher rate as may be authorized by law.

The Authority has already issued its $1,500,000 2001 Building Authority Bonds to pay part of the costs of said DPW Facility/Interim Fire Station and the Amended and Restated Contract referred to herein is being entered into by the Authority and the City partially for the purpose of paying increased portions of the project costs of such DPW Facility/interim Fire Station.

Additionally, the City previously adopted a Notice of Intent Resolution for the Fire Station Project on December 19, 2000 and published said notice on December 24, 2000, with the statutory referendum period passing without a petition being filed. With respect to the Fire Station Project, the only change in the Amended and Restated Contract from the previous Contract is to revise the principal amount of bonds to be issued from $5,000,000 to not to exceed $5,200,000 due to revised cost estimates.

The Amended and Restated Contract will further provide that the City will lease the Project from said Building Authority and WILL PAY AS RENTAL TO SAID BUILDING AUTHORITY ALL SUMS NECESSARY TO RETIRE THE PRINCIPAL OF AND INTEREST ON SAID BONDS, TOGETHER WITH ALL COSTS OF OPERATING AND MAINTAINING THE PROJECTS AND ALL COSTS of said Building Authority in connection therewith, regardless of whether the Project is tenable. The principal amount to be borrowed by the Building Authority will be indebtedness of the City for purposes of statutory, charter and constitutional debt limitations, and said principal amount, together with the City's rental obligation for payment thereof, may be increased to cover increased costs of the Project.

CITY AMENDED AND RESTATED CONTRACT OBLIGATION

BY VIRTUE OF SAID PROPOSED AMENDED AND RESTATED CONTRACT AND ACT, THE CITY'S REQUIRED PAYMENTS UNDER THE AMENDED AND RESTATED CONTRACT TO THE BUILDING AUTHORITY WILL BE LIMITED TAX FULL FAITH AND CREDIT GENERAL OBLIGATIONS OF THE CITY PAYABLE FROM ANY AVAILABLE FUNDS OF THE CITY, AND THE CITY WILL BE REQUIRED TO LEVY AD VALOREM TAXES ON ALL TAXABLE PROPERTY WITHIN ITS BOUNDARIES: TO THE EXTENT NECESSARY TO MAKE THE PAYMENTS REQUIRED TO RETIRE THE BONDS AND INTEREST THEREON, IF OTHER FUNDS FOR THAT PURPOSE ARE NOT AVAILABLE, AND AS LIMITED BY LAW, THE OBLIGATION TO LEVY TAXES IS LIMITED BY APPLICABLE CONSTITUTIONAL, CHARTER AND STATUTORY TAX RATE LIMITATIONS.

SAID PROPOSED AMENDED AND RESTATED CONTRACT SHALL BECOME EFFECTIVE WITHOUT VOTE OF THE ELECTORS OF THE CITY, AS PERMITTED BY LAW, UPON THE EXPIRATION OF 60 DAYS FOLLOWING THE DATE OF PUBLICATION OF THIS NOTICE, UNLESS A PETITION REQUESTING AN ELECTION ON THE QUESTION OF WHETHER SUCH AMENDED AND RESTATED CONTRACT SHOULD BE EFFECTIVE, SIGNED BY NOT LESS THAN 10% OF THE REGISTERED ELECTORS OF THE CITY, IS FILED WITH THE CITY CLERK WITHIN 45 DAYS FROM THE DATE OF SUCH PUBLICATION. If such petition is so filed, the Amended and Restated Contract shall not be effective without an approving vote by a majority of electors of the City voting on the question.

This Notice is given pursuant to the requirements of Section 8(b) of the aforesaid Act 31, as amended. Further information concerning the details of said Amended and Restated Contract, the Projects being financed and the matters set out in this Notice may be secured from the City Clerk's office. A copy of the Amended and Restated Contract will be on file in the office of the City Clerk for public inspection within 30 days from the date hereof.

Bivens promises to serve youth, while community heaps lots of praise for his accomplishments

Inkster came out to honor one of their finest citizens last week, former Mayor Edward Bivens, and we as a newspaper and friend, were glad to be a part of the ceremonies.

Bivens, who we are happy to say, has recovered from a massive stroke suffered about a year ago while taking communion at his church, was widely reported being dead at the time of the stroke. Attendees at the tribute, saw firsthand that the wisecracking former mayor is far from his deathbed.

Accompanied with his usual wittiness, it was a serious Bivens who broke down in tears when he thanked the citizens, particularly the youth of Inkster, for "allowing me to serve them."

With all due respect, Mayor, it is the people, not you, that should be thankful. Because the three terms Bivens directed the City as Mayor were some of the best years Inkster has seen. Always a fiscal conservative, Bivens guided the City through tough financial times, always making sure the well never ran dry.

Two of his crowning achievements during his final term, was the construction of the first commercial enterprise, the shopping center at Michigan and Middlebelt, in two dozen years, and the demolition of the Melody Theatre, the notorious X-rated hangout that spearheaded Inkster's lousy reputation.

That reputation has gotten much better thanks to Mayor Bivens' efforts. And as Bivens announced at his tribute he isn't done serving. He indicated his continuing mission will be "to help the youth of our community and to show them that one can succeed through hard work and dedication."

A similar message was pronounced by United States Olympic CEO and former Romulus resident Lloyd Ward, when he was in Romulus last month. Good "ole hard work" is the number one ingredient for success, say both Ward and Bivens.

By the way, Bivens' accomplishments are not limited to Inkster.

The former mayor is recognized as the first African-American assigned to the Presidential Honor Guard and the first African-American assigned as a NCOIC of a general staff section at the Engineer Center.

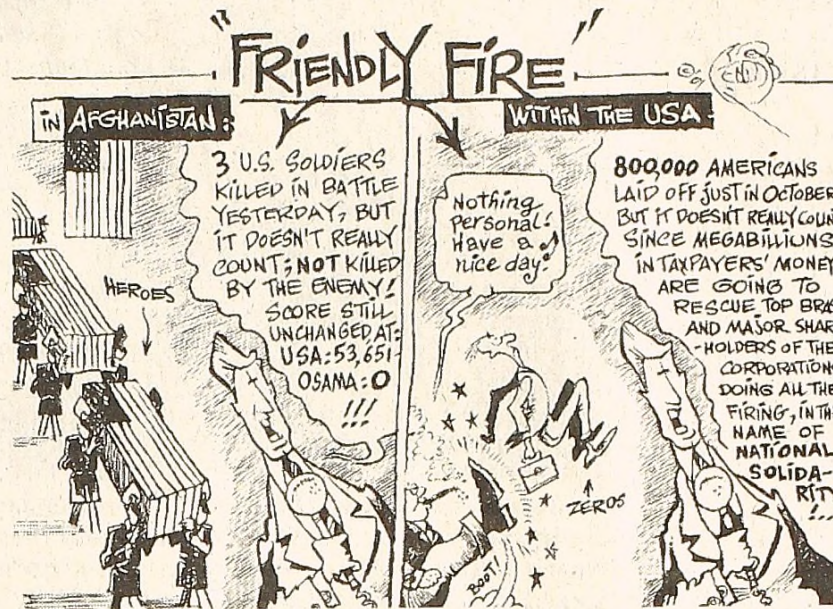

He has worked hard throughout his life to excel at family, making friends, and serving the public. We have no doubt he will continue to serve the youth of the area in fine fashion.

There is no better example for our youth to follow. Ed Bivens is most deserving of the accolades bestowed upon him.

Police let down family

To the editor:

I really do not know how to begin this and cannot believe that this is something that I have to do.

I am writing this in regards to the "The Other Side of the Meridian" column. I am the older sister of the victim, Sala Simmons, and I have lost my best friend.

I would first like to thank Mr. Tom Mooradian for the very moving article regarding my sister. She will always be loved and missed.

Next, to the law enforcement team that was suppose to serve and protect us, where were you?

All our lives we have been told that the police were there to help when there was trouble. On the night of Nov. 18, my sister thought that she could rely on that and was let down.

I have thought countless hours about how this could have happened and I still do not understand. Regardless to whether there was fighting and arguing, she thought she would be protected. She had to find out the hard way that God is our only real protection.

Does it make me angry? Yes, because we have lost a mother, a daughter, a sister, a niece, and a lifelong friend.

Whether or not law enforcement officials want to stand up and admit it, they have failed our entire family and community. How many lives will be lost in this manner and then swept under the rug?

Every police officer has taken an oath to protect, not cover up. To uphold justice, not deceit. It is your responsibility to standby what you have been sworn to do.

My sister is gone now and nothing can bring her back, but please know that a family has lost trust in the system that we once believed in.

I ask, how many other people in the community will be let done as well?

Sincerely,
Timisha Jenkins

Bring back Christmas

Nobody had ever heard of Global Warming when Irving Berlin wrote "White Christmas."

In the icy old days — when we had a better class of weather folks — you'd get a foot or two of snow between Thanksgiving and Christmas Eve, enough to turn Victorian towns and hamlets into picture postcards.

Once upon a time, Nankin kids expected Santa to bring them wooden sleds for flying down Hines Park's dips.

Roving carolers buckled up insulated boots to protect their toes before treading through the white Canton tundra and frozen corn fields up to farmhouses to sing "O tidings of comfort and joy" to snow-shoveling grandmas or "God rest ye merry, gentlemen" to rocking chair grandpas scratching the seams of their red woolen underwear.

But this year — the second hottest since the invention of the thermometer — the only scarves we'll need will be to cover our ears when somebody sings "I'm dreaming of a White Christmas."

It's not happening. Instead, the few snow flakes that I saw melted before they could hit the asphalt. As of Christmas morning (when this was written — some of us work on Christmas), meteorologists have recorded a half-inch in the Metro area.

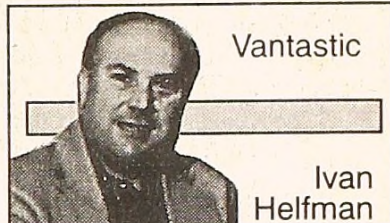

At this rate, we'll be lucky to get enough to make a snow cone.

But the Christmas spirit has arrived, sending shoppers to the malls for presents at bargain rates, infusing office parties, and diverting laid-off workers from obsessing about the recession.

Perhaps it was the Christmas spirit that persuaded the Westland City Council to loan the Westland Historical Commission almost $20,000 to move the 130-year-old Octagon House from the boondocks to the middle of Westland to eventually become a historical museum. About 50 octagon-shape homes had been built in Michigan as a result of Orson Squire Fowler's travels.

In the late 1840s, Fowler hawked the homes in the Midwest as a "home for all," claiming it would improve families' health. The unusual wall-and-window configuration would direct air flow to ventilate what he called "miasmas," or foul germ-filled air, out of the home. At the very least, eight sides would provide more windows and light than four sides.

One of the reasons I support preserving the Octagon House is because it carries on the Victorian era. With its unusual shape, it looks as if it had been brought here by the Ghost of Christmas Past.

Vantastic

Once money is raised and it's remodeled, in future Decembers it can be canecked out with holly, ivy, and hand-painted wood ornaments and illuminated by fragrant candles in brass and silver holders.

Perhaps it will inspire us with its suggestions of simpler but more elegant Christmases to adopt some old-time virtues.

When a 19th century shipping magnate build the home in the 1870s, America was on the rise. Out of the Union's victory in the Civil War came a legion of inventors, reformers, and corporate ventures.

By the end of the Victorian era, Americans had perfected the internal combustion engine, laid railroad tracks from coast to coast, hung telegraph wires beside the tracks, raised skyscrapers, and built factories that manufactured the lion's share of world's goods for another 80 years.

While the money was accumulating, cities built vast parks, tycoons built libraries, and society matrons ran charities and orphanages. Civilization rose another notch.

The same values that propelled American prosperity and greatness prompted Fowler to spread his passions for octagon-shaped homes to the world. (Previously he had written bestselling sex manuals and less popular treatises on phrenology, the science of reading head bumps to divine a person's character.)

Unfortunately, after WW I, the war to make the world safe for democracy, Victorian passions and values lost out to the miasma of modernism and its war on traditional values. "Hey, hey, ho, ho, Western Civ has got to go!" as Rev. Jesse Jackson later put it.

Perhaps the restored Octagon House will drive some of the miasmas out of Westland and, once a year, showcase a proper Christmas before Global Warming does us in.

Until then, "let it snow, let it snow, let snow."

'I am a man without a party'

It is traditional for editors and columnists, in their last piece of the year, to either summarize the past year and/or make predictions for the coming one. This writer will not only ignore that tradition but also break another by using the first person singular.

Most of my columns are based on a principle related to current events. So that you may know where I am coming from, following are my beliefs.

First, I am a Bible believing, nondenominational Christian. I believe the Bible is the word of God. While it is replete with symbols, parables and analogies, the truth contained in it is the only acceptable basis for living one's life.

Politically I am a Jeffersonian Democrat, in other words, a man without a party. Thomas Jefferson, author of the Declaration of Independence was one of the staunchest proponents of individual liberty among our founding fathers. He was a founder of the Democrat Party, which has abandoned his principles in favor of big government. The Republicans offer no alternative.

Medium Rare

I believe in the original intent of the Constitution to check the powers of government. I agree with another founder Noah Webster who said, "not only misinterpretation but serious error can occur when original meanings are ignored."

I am often accused of being "antigovernment." I plead guilty to the same extent and for the same reasons our founding fathers were. They had just fought their way out from under one tyranny and attempted to forestall another with a government of limited powers and checks and balances.

Accelerating in the Twentieth Century, government at all levels, but particularly at the federal level, has been gathering more and more power unto itself in violation of the original intent of the Constitution. For the most part, the public welcomes it believing, despite the lessons of history, that government can guarantee both safety and economic security.

Still, we would do well to remember the admonition of our first president, George Washington, who said, "government is not reason it is force, a dangerous servant and a fearful master."

As Thomas Jefferson reminded us, "eternal vigilance is the price of liberty." That is the thrust of most of my columns, keeping a watchful eye on government.

Straight ticket voting elimination stinks

Since 1993, we have been seeing a deliberate, long-term pattern by Republicans — under the guise of election reform — of making it more difficult for people to vote and participate in the electoral process. It started with attempts to limit donations from union members. It continued with subsequent attempts to limit bingo, making voters produce photo ID's, and the closure of Secretary of State offices where urban voters register. Now, unfortunately, we can add the elimination of the right to a straight ticket vote to the list.

The voters of Michigan want and deserve election reform, but they want election reform that increases access and makes voting easier for more people. The elimination of straight ticket voting rights is NOT election reform. It takes away a voting option the Michigan voters from both parties have exercised in large numbers for over 100 years — the right to cast a quick, simple straight-ticket vote.

Guest Column

The elimination of the right to vote a straight ticket will disenfranchise a broad spectrum of Michigan voters — Democrat and Republican alike. There will be longer lines at the polls, which will increase voter frustration with the election process and elected officials. Voters will have to spend more time in the voting booth, which dramatically increases the cost of elections because of the need for additional staff and voting equipment at the polls. This amounts to an unfunded mandate by the state.

Longer lines at the polls will discourage citizens who only have a short time to vote during their lunch hours or before or after work. Michigan law limits voters to two minutes in the voting booth. So taking away the right of straight ticket voting will disenfranchise any voter who might not be able to complete their ballots in two minutes, such as persons with disabilities, persons who don't read well, or some senior citizens.

When it was time to vote on the bill to eliminate straight ticket voting, my House Democratic colleagues and I made several attempts to change the legislation to make it more voter-friendly. We offered a number of amendments including making Election Day a holiday, easing restrictions to absentee voting, allowing voters to decide in the 2002 general election whether or not straight ticket voting should be eliminated, and implementing a vote-by-mail system in Michigan similar to the one in Oregon. House Republicans defeated every amendment.

Republicans see the writing on the wall — they know Democrats will have a stronger top of the ticket in the 2002 election. Eliminating straight ticket voting is just one of the many ways they will attempt to suppress voter turnout next year. My Democratic colleagues and I will be focusing on voter education efforts to combat these partisan ploys and help increase voter participation.

LETTERS FROM OUR READERS

Don't mention cops' neighborhoods

To the editor:
In the "Sound Off Extra" section, published November 29, 2001, a section was written identifying a specific area where a Westland police officer lives. While we do not necessarily oppose freedom of speech, even when the speech is inaccurate, we are upset over the failure of your paper to properly edit this section directly identifying a specific area where a police officer lives. This failure is inexcusable.

Police offices have a difficult enough job without fearing their personal residence will be identified by the local press. The Police Offices Association of Michigan is requesting that this policy be reviewed and corrected.

Fox appointed to guard her house

To the editor:
Sandy Cicerelli, you campaigned on how you put this community back together after two years of "turmoil." The very people who put you in office as council president, you now slap them in the face. You would not be council president unless Griffin resigned under threat of recall. You were "chosen" for that position under very "questionable" circumstances. Your opening statement as council president was how you "would unify the community."

Your recent decision to reappoint Keith Madden as Personal Director is reprehensible, especially since the city just enacted an ethics ordinance. He admitted to tapping into the Gracins website a criminal offense. Now he is to oversee the ethics ordinance. A good analogy "The Fox guarding the Hen House."

You worked very hard to have your friend Peggy Ellenwood on the council. When the primary election was held she was resoundingly defeated. You now appoint her as director at the Senior Center. Where are your ethics?

The continuity at the Senior Center is crucial to the programs and seniors who go there every day. Your decision to not reappoint (legalese for fire) Lori Brist is unconscionable, but worst is your decision to put in Peggy Ellenwood. Her qualifications(?) as a nursing home worker has absolutely nothing to do with Senior Center Administrator. After many comments by the seniors at the last council meeting, not once did you give a proper explanation for that action. The answer is very simple. It is a political payback for her 'ballot insurance' from the seniors in her facility. We can be assured that the "Casino Queen" is right behind her. Watch for some appointment to a position very soon (better order a new van). All you hanger-ons will be rewarded somehow.

Sandy, you just opened a wound that healed a short time ago. This city will not rest until we are represented and not used. This city will never again be complacent to what is dead wrong. You cannot slop your cronies in. Responsibility and accountability is a must.

Remember Pat Gibbons. This is not a threat, it is a promise.
Marion Greenfield

Is Ellenwood qualified for senior job?

After watching and re-watching the last council meeting of 2001, I can't help but get more and more disgusted with the mayor-elect. To her I ask, how can you compare a Senior Center to the Westland Convalescent Center?

News Flash: Sandy, 49 puts you closer then you realize. AARP allows you to sign up and considers you a senior at age 50. I sure hope you don't make a wrong turn and sign up at the wrong center.

I've been a member of the Friendship Center for almost a year now and I have to say that probably every member using the exercise room can outlast and go faster on the tread mills then I could ever imagine trying.

When you stated that Peggy Ellenwood was qualified because of her experience at Westland Convalescent, you neglected to state she was a paper-pusher, and you didn't specify what she has a degree in. For all we know, it could be in basket weaving, qualifying her to lead a class, not a center.

For these reasons and a few others, I urge every citizen of this community of Westland to demand a city charter revision get in the works as soon as possible. It has been proven twice now in the last two years that, for some reason, the politicians in this city seem to think that seniors should be used as a political ploy. Why is the head of the senior center appointed by the mayor? It should be and always should have been a civil service job, and appointments should be earned, not ap pointed. Owing a friend doesn't qualify someone for a job. Thankfully, Lori Brist has a rejuvenating personality (and this from someone who protested her appointment). It is my understanding that in surrounding communities, the senior director is a civil service job and is not appointed by the mayor. If we had less appointments and more on-the-job promotions, maybe words like "recall" and "in the red" wouldn't be as common as they are.

I urge every one to contact the mayor and ask her the reasoning for this upset at the center. After all, isn't she one taking credit for the Ethics Ordinance? Friendship may not come under nepotism but maybe it should. Shame on all the voters who voted for someone because of their sex. I've heard that that happened a lot this last election. I hope not that's as bad as making an uninformed vote.

Let's make it a vote on a charter board before a special election for the incinerator.

SOUND OFF EXTRA

Unhappy caller loses 16 pages and adver- tising from last issue

What is up with ten or 12 pages max? [Try 28 pages in our last issue, not counting the advertising — Ed.] For seventy five cents (with Downriver papers), you at least get more than two pages. Much of the paper is advertisement, and for that I pay this fee.

I am a senior citizen and enjoy reading the paper. The news about Westland is zilch. Sure hope we get more news after Jan. 1.

Thanks. [Name of mathematically challenged reader withheld]

Let the patrolman eat lunch at home, just don't give him a car

I was going to complain about you repeating the same Sound Offs over and over [in our holding tank on the 'Net where all Sound Offs that could not fit in the paper appear]. But this time I am glad you left the one up about the police officer responding to the person who spied a Westland officer coming home for lunch.

I think it is good that people are watching, but it is true that what might seem suspicious could be very innocent. So be careful with accusations.

What stood out the second time I read this Sound Off was the statement about select "high-ranking" officers taking home cars. Exactly how many "select" officers has not been disclosed. If the taxpayers are footing the bill, they have a right to know the numbers and the price tag.

Council members should withstand pressure from mayor

I for one am sick of the pressure always being placed on the Westland council members to vote on issues when they have not been provided with documents to back up the requests.

For whatever reason — one can only guess it is political — the administration sits on select reports, the other departments bring "rush" deals to the table and rarely allows for a full study of the pros and cons of the expense. It happens over and over.

I say to the new council, put the pressure right back where it belongs, on the administrators to show their numbers before voting in favor.

Swistak prevented from breaking campaigning rules

Ms. Swistak was not denied free speech, she was denied the error of breaking the rules.

On more than one occasion, people thinking that they were working towards the benefit of their preferred candidate addressed the Westland City Council with the intention of slamming the opposition. This is clearly a violation of the council rules and many were told to stop, including Ms. Swistak.

Ms. Swistak feels that the rules only apply to others, and in her effort to portray the professional victim, she is using this latest rebuff to further her cause.

Be careful of sneezing in her presence, you may be accused of being a police mole deliberately trying to infect her in an effort to keep her quiet. That's my opinion anyway.

Holiday special – the Mega vs PSL Belleville, Wayne take on Detroit giants at Cobo

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

While most of the high school coaches and their teams will grab a brief "time out" before they resume conference competition next week, there is a small cadre of local masochistic coaches and teams that refuse to rest and will see action on the hardwood this week.

Undefeated Belleville and Wayne Memorial will join Willow Run in the Cobo Arena to take on three of the giants of the Detroit Public School League - Detroit Martin Luther King, Finney and Murray Wright - in what is called the annual Metropolitan Detroit Public School Tip-Off Classic, previously known as the Superintendent's Holiday Classic.

Also, Plymouth-Salem and Plymouth-Canton are engaged in a holiday tournament at the University of Detroit High.

Belleville will place a five-game winning streak on the block when Coach Mike Krogel's Tigers square off against Detroit Martin Luther King High at 4 p.m. at Cobo. Although King is 3-2, the Detroit basketball team is a "very talented one", says Krogel.

"This will be our biggest test," said Krogel in a telephone interview on Monday. "They have excellent speed and also a veteran ball club. This game may define what we are all about. Traditionally King is noted for its outstanding ball clubs, and this year's team is no exception."

With Willow Run joining Belleville and Wayne Memorial in the Cobo, Wayne Coach Wayne Woodard noted that the three games pits the Mega Conference against the Detroit Public School League.

"It's no secret that Detroit produces some of the best teams and basketball talent in the state and the nation," Woodard said. "We'll have an opportunity to find out how we stack up against them. It should be interesting."

Wayne is paired with Detroit Murray Wright in the night cap of the three games scheduled for 8 p.m. on Thursday, Dec. 27.

"They (Murray-Wright) have a pair of guards who go 6-7 and 6-6," says Woodard," and they are going to be tough to stop. We definitely are going to have our hands full."

Murray Wright brings a 4-1 record into the game.

Willow Run, a pre-season favorite to win the Mega-Red this year, has had its problems. The Flyers have won three of their first five, but have not displayed the explosive power that some believed they had.

Willow Run will meet Detroit Finney, a team that is ranked in the state's top 10, in the 6 p.m. game.

Finney is presently riding the crest of a four-game winning streak. The defense-minded Detroiters have managed to hold most of their opponents under 40 points this season, and some prognosticators say that it is the team to beat in Detroit this year.

Plymouth-Salem and its natural rival, Canton, also will see action in holiday tournaments this week. Canton will play Detroit Northwestern at the University of Detroit High Holiday Invitational. Please check with the high school for times and sites.

Belleville runs winning streak to 5

Salem gets by Wayne by 5

Wayne Memorial got a taste of what's to come next season when they move to the Western Lakes Conference.

Coach Wayne Woodard and the Zebras took on one of the perennial powers of the conference in Plymouth-Salem on the Rocks' home court, and Salem handed its future conference opponent a 52-47 setback in a game that went down to the wire.

Although neither team led by more than seven throughout most of this hard-fought defensive battle, Salem did prevail, thanks to its defense and another exceptional game by its 6-4 junior forward Dave Hoskins, who drilled 22 of his team's 52 points.

Hoskins also dished seven assists.

The Rocks managed to come out ahead 27-24 at the intermission despite Jeff Logwood's and Clifton Edwards' sterling efforts.

Logwood tossed in a team high 18 points and also grabbed six rebounds in the Zebras' third loss of the season. Edwards came through for the visitors with eight points.

Wayne coach Wayne Woodard said he thought his team played a solid game on defense, "but we still are not where we should be on offense. We're taking untimely shots and turning the ball over at crucial times. Against a team like Salem, you just can't do that."

Salem improved its overall record to 2-2 on the year.

Wayne Memorial has been invited this year to play in the Detroit Public School Holiday Classic (nee the Superintendent's Classic) at Cobo Hall. The Zebras will take on one of PSL's premier teams in Murray Wright at 8 p.m. in the last of three games scheduled for Thursday, Dec. 27, in the Cobo Arena. (See related story on this page).

Woodard and the Zebras will carry a 1-1 Mega Conference, Red Division and a 2-3 overall record into the New Year.

In the meantime, Coach Bob Brodie and the Rocks, also are scheduled to play in a holiday tournament hosted by U of D High.

The best of 2001

As in yesteryears, 2001 also has produced its share of exciting stories. The Michigan Community Newspapers' Staff is busy reviewing the pages of yesterday to decide which stories deserve recognition as "the top" stories of 2001. Among those that are being considered is Inkster High's phenomenal winning streak in girls basketball. Coach Dave Mann (above) and the Vikings managed to string together 40 consecutive victories and also beat three-time Mega-Red Conference champ to win the conference title and lost only to Detroit Benedictine, which went on to win the state's Class C championship. There were others such as the resignation of long-time Plymouth-Salem coaching icon Tom Moshimer and Westland John Glenn's outstanding performance in the football playoffs. Where do they rank in the scale of 1 to 10 as the best sports news stories of the year? Grab next week's edition and find out.

Canton bounces back to beat Brighton, 63-44

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

After a letdown and a 15 point loss to Ann Arbor Pioneer earlier in the week, Coach Jeremy Rheault and the Canton Chiefs came back on Thursday and took their wrath out on Brighton, 63-44, to improve their overall record to 3-2 on the season.

Game 6 for Plymouth-Canton is at U of D High.

The Chiefs have accepted an invitation to play this week in the University of Detroit High Holiday Classic and will clash with Detroit Northwestern.

After leading the cold-shooting Pioneers Tuesday night most of the first half and coming out on top, 24-22, for the first two quarters, the Chiefs failed to break away from the determined and undefeated Pioneers who stayed with their non-conference rivals until midway in the fourth quarter when they exploded and outscored the Chiefs 15-3 in the stretch.

Canton committed atypically 25 turnovers and that, according to coach Rheault, helped in his team's demise.

"I felt we played an excellent game against an excellent team for one half, but our turnovers really hurt us, especially in the fourth quarter," said Rheault, who also commended the Ann Arbor team for hanging tough when they were trailing. "We led by 11 at one point and that should have been a building block for us. Obviously it didn't happen"

Eric Williams nailed a three-pointer with less than six minutes left in the game to turn the game around for the Pioneers, who then went on a 12-1 run that left the Chiefs in a daze.

Williams also scored 10 points and had five steals, while Whitney Davis scored a game high 19 points, but 13 of those came from his performance at the free throw line. Canton placed two players in the double-digit scoring column. Billy Gazsi, a 6-foot, senior guard, pumped in 14 points, while teammate Brendan Murphy, a 6-2, senior forward, finished with seven points, counted 10 rebounds and also came away with a pair of steals that led to easy lay-ups.

The Detroit Northwestern - Plymouth-Canton game is scheduled for 12:40 p.m. on Thursday.

Canton returns to Western Lakes Conference action at Walled Lake Central on Tuesday, Jan. 8.

Canton roared back and trounced Brighton, 63-44, behind Andrew Meagrow's season high 23 points and 12 rebounds. The Chiefs also received 13 points and eight rebounds from their 5-10, senior guard Jason Priebe.

New Tiger coach remains undefeated

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

It hasn't happen in recent years, like in the past three decades in these parts, that a first year varsity basketball coach wins his first five basketball games of the season.

But that's what the Belleville Tigers have achieved for Coach Mike Krogel this season. Their latest triumph came at the expense of Wayne Memorial as they held off a late Zebra rally and posted a 62-53 victory over their Mega-Red Divisional opponents.

Krogel, who coached at Woodhaven for the past 20 years, accepted the Belleville job this year when Rod Fisher, the Michigan Community Newspapers' Coach of the Year, decided to resign to spend more time with his young family.

Krogel said that he accepted the Tiger position because "it offered a new challenge to me."

"Belleville has always had an excellent basketball program, and I felt that I wanted to be a part of it," he said.

Krogel is undefeated as the Tiger coach. His team has posted five consecutive victories, but No. 6 will be his and the Tigers' biggest test, he admits. Belleville and Detroit Martin Luther King meet on Thursday, Dec. 27, at 4 p.m. in the Detroit Public School League Tip Off Classic King is 3-2 in the tough PSL. And the Detroiters are a power to contend with.

In its latest victory, Belleville held a precarious lead over Wayne most of the game. Tied at 10 in the closing seconds of the first period, the Tigers got a spectacular at-the-buzzer 3-point basket from James Holmes to give them a 13-10 lead.

Belleville built on that lead in the second period as Holmes was joined by Antoine Jordan and Lorne Johnson in providing the Mega-Red leaders with balanced scoring. Each scored four points as the Tigers broke away, 31-21, at the half.

Wayne closed to 51-49 midway in the fourth period as Jeff Logwood scored six of his 11 points and Darren Johnson added five of his seven points in the final period. But Coach Wayne Woodard's Zebras never managed to get the go-ahead basket.

Holmes, who had two big three-pointers, finished with a game high 20 points. Johnson contributed 12 points and Jordan chipped in eight rebounds.

Along with Logwood's 11 points, Wayne also received 11 points from Cedrick Sims and Jonathan Raspberry finished with 10.

The Tigers also had one of their best performances in recent years at the free throw line where they converted 15 of 16 opportunities. Wayne cashed in on four of six free throws.

Belleville will come back after the New Year to resume its quest for a Mega-Red title, a title they shared a year ago with Monroe.

The Tigers also will launch the New Year with a pair of home games. On Friday, Jan. 4, they will entertain South Lyon, then, on Friday, Jan. 11, they take on Monroe, a team that finished the 2001 phase of the season with a 3-2 record.

Quick-triggered Glenn needs a dose of patience Flyers latest to take advantage of Rockets

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

Quick-triggered Westland John Glenn went for the treys and died by them against a Willow Run team that used balanced scoring to shoot down the Rockets, 56-48, in an out-of-conference basketball game before the home crowd in Westland.

The loss left the Rockets with a 2-3 record for the 2001 phase of the season.

In a game that started as if no one really wanted it - neither team scored the first three minutes of this battle - Glenn later managed to trail by more than a dozen before the Westlanders found enough confidence to stage a short-lived rally that lifted the hosts to a 39-38 lead with less than six minutes to play in the final period.

Behind balanced scoring sparked by Andre Gardette, the Flyers outscored their hosts 18-9 in the stretch to post their third victory in five starts, 56-48. It was Glenn's third setback in five outings this season.

Willow Run held a 16-11 edge after one and increased its advantage to 32-23 at the halfway mark.

And when the Rockets managed to hold Willow Run to six points in the third period, they came within two of tying (38-36) for three periods. They erased the deficit thanks to Darnell Smith's basket. The Rockets' defense then caved in as Willow Run went on a 10-1 run.

Glenn had only one player hit in double figures and that was Dwight Bankhead who finished with 13 points. Darnell Wilson who had eight points and Darnell Smith with seven points were the next best.

The Rockets shot woefully from three-point range - they made only two of 12 attempts - didn't show the patience they had a week earlier when they destroyed a highly-touted Adrian, 72-47, which, thus far, has been the Rockets' best game of the current campaign.

With no holiday tournaments scheduled this week, John Glenn will be scrimmaging local and area teams in hopes of ironing out the team's kinks. Coach Joel Lloyd's Rockets will be back on the pine on Jan. 8 when they will host Livonia Franklin before a Parents' Night crowd.

The Franklin game also will be the first for Glenn in the Western Lakes Conference for the 2002 phase of the campaign. On the 10th, the Westlanders will travel to Farmington Hills Harrison.

Coleman sparks Romulus victory over Flyers

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

Sophomore scores career high 25 points

With senior guard and defense specialist Anson Long hurting with an ankle injury and their senior guard and potential All-Stater Ron Solomon academically ineligible for the first part of the season, Coach Guy DelGiudice and the Romulus Eagles needed a lift from someone.

And that someone was 6-5, sophomore forward Ronald Coleman who scored a career high 26 points in leading his team to an impressive 71-59 victory over pre-season Mega-Red title favorite, Willow Run.

"You know, going into this game with Willow Run we were 0-3," said DelGiudice, a veteran of couple of dozen of basketball campaigns. "Psychologically, we needed a victory and we needed someone to give us a lift. Fortunately, we got someone to do that."

Coleman was the man.

Willow Run could not stop the rising comet last week as Coleman ignited a 10-2 Eagle run with a rim-rattling 3-pointer that pulled his team from a 11-8 first period lead to a 31-17 advantage at halftime.

Coleman, joined by guard and senior captain Charles Searcy, kept things under wraps the rest of the way as both teams put 16 points on the scoreboard in the third period and, as DelGiudice freely substituted midway in the fourth, the Flyers outscored their Mega-Red rivals, 26-24, in the final stanza.

Coleman not only finished with the game high 25 points, he also managed to collect a game high 12 rebounds.

Searcy, who kept the tempo of the game flowing the way DelGiudice wanted, added 11 points, seven assists and also picked off three steals.

Romulus also placed two other players in double figures. Long, who tested his ankle for the first time in this game, finished with 11 points. Derrick Robinson added 14 points for the Eagles who canned 10 of 15 at the free throw line.

Willow Run's mainstays - Donnell Patterson and Andre Gardette - led their team. Patterson tossed in 17 points and Gardette contributed 16 points.

In their first encounter of the Mega-Red season, Wayne Memorial emerged as a 64-52 winner as coach Wayne Woodard's Zebras overcame a shocking first period in which they scored only one basket and trailed 9-2 at the beginning of the second period.

Wayne came alive in the second period thanks to the team's balanced scoring as Michael Rashad, Darian Mitchell and Cedrick Sims helped close the scoring gap, 24-20. The Zebras took control of the game early in the third period as they outscored the Eagles 24-17 to go up, 44-41, and put the game away with a 20-11 edge in the final quarter.

Rashad, Mitchell and Sims each scored 10 points for the Zebras who took advantage of 20 of their 33 offerings at the free throw line. Romulus got 11 points each from Searcy and Mike Christopher, while Derrick Robinson tossed in 10.

Not involved in any holiday tournament this year, Romulus will return to the hardwood after the New Year. The Eagles will immediately be challenged by one of the division's frontrunners, Monroe. The two will meet at Monroe on Tuesday, Jan. 8.

In the meantime, Wayne Memorial travels to Cobo Arena tonight (Dec. 27) to take on Detroit Murray Wright (See Page 10 story) in the Detroit Public School League Tip Off Invitational.

Football star is thankful for help

Lucius Hawkins was an outstanding student-athlete at Inkster High School, and thanks to a scholarship awarded to him by a local organization he was able to attend Grand Valley State University.

Hawkins also played a key role in Grand Valley's outstanding season in football. GVSU posted a perfect 12-0 record in winning their conference championship and advanced to the national championship where they lost to North Dakota.

In a recent letter to George Thompson, former Inkster High basketball coach and athletic director, who is presently serving as the chairman of the Khamalaw White Foundation Scholarship, Hawkins, in part, wrote these generous words of appreciation to the foundation and to Mr. Thompson:

Dear Mr. Thompson:

As you know, I'm in my second year at Grand Valley State University majoring in criminal justice. I have decided to specialize in Juvenile Justice. So far, I'm maintaining a B-Plus average.

It's truly the best of both worlds to be able to acquire higher education, and be on a winning team.

Thanks to you and the Khamalaw White Foundation for taking a chance and investing in me."

Twietmeyer stars for Adrian

A former Plymouth-Canton basketball star is among the top scorers in the nation.

Janell Twietmeyer, who helped make Canton a power in the Western Lakes, is now playing the same role for Alma College. The junior forward is among the NCAA Division III national leaders in at least two statistical categories.

In games through Dec. 10, Twietmeyer is seventh in three-point field goal percentage, at 51.22 percentage.

this season, she has made 21 of 41 attempts from the three-point range. Her made - attempts from "downtown" average out to 2.63 per game, which puts her 33rd in the national stats for three-point field goals per game.

Twietmeyer also led the Scots to a pair of victories. In a 79-55 win over Concordia (Mich.) she scored 15 points, making 5-of-7 shots including 3-of-5 from the three-point line.

Also, Twietmeyer tied a school record with seven three-pointers, scoring a career high 29 points in a 75-60 victory over Aquinas. She made 15-of-24 field goal attempts in the game, including 7-11 from three-point range.

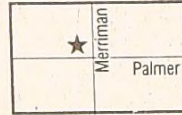

Twietmeyer also made seven three-point shots in a game against Diance College and was named MIAA "Player of the Week" for her outstanding performance.
